

Good Morning,

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Administration for Children and Families (ACF), Administration on Children, Youth and Families (ACYF), Family and Youth Services Bureau (FYSB) is gearing up for its 2019 grant review season. We will soon begin identifying qualified candidates to read, score, and evaluate grant applications in response to FYSB's anticipated Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs).

Grant reviews are tentatively scheduled to be held between July and September 2019. Program specific requirements will be shared, beginning in May 2019.

Approved Reviewers will be invited to join virtual panel review teams that work remotely, using secured web-based technology, to evaluate federal grant applications. Reviewers will receive monetary compensation for the successful completion of an objective panel review period.

Seven (7) funding opportunity announcements across FYSB programs (Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention, Family Violence Prevention and Services, Runaway and Homeless Youth) will be supported during this grant review period. Please review the attached program flyers, which are directly related to the programs noted below, to determine your level of interest in each program as well as the experience required to support each program:
